

For additional information:
Ruth Cassidy, ITechLaw
+1-781-876-6239
pr@itechlaw.org

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ITechLaw Announces New Officers and Board of Directors

Sandra A. Jeskie Elected President

WAKEFIELD, Mass., USA – May 26, 2010 – The International Technology Law Association (ITechLaw; <http://www.itechlaw.org>) has elected new officers and a new board of directors at its 2010 World Technology Law Conference & Annual Meeting, held recently in Boston. ITechLaw is the premier organization for lawyers in the technology sector worldwide, with members from six continents and nearly 60 countries.

ITechLaw is now led by Sandra A. Jeskie, partner at Duane Morris LLP and co-chair of the firm's Information Technology and Telecom practice group. Jeskie is a U.S. attorney whose diverse national practice focuses on commercial and technology-based litigation, including commercial litigation, intellectual property litigation, software litigation, e-commerce, privacy, security and Internet/computer law. As a technology lawyer, Jeskie leverages her more than 16 years of experience as a computer scientist. Her full professional biography can be seen at <http://www.duanemorris.com/attorneys/sandraajeskie.html>.

The new ITechLaw officers, who together form the executive committee (<http://www.itechlaw.org/officials.htm>), are:

- President, Sandra A. Jeskie, Duane Morris LLP, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, USA
- Vice President, Alexander Blumrosen, Bernard Hertz B ejot, Paris, France
- Treasurer, John Beardwood, Fasken Martineau, Toronto, Canada
- Secretary, Kiran Sandford, Mishcon de Reya, London, UK
- Assistant Secretary, Sajai Singh, J. Sagar Associates, Bangalore, India
- Immediate Past President, Ursula Widmer, Dr. Widmer & Partners, Attorneys-at-Law, Berne, Switzerland

"I am honored by the confidence placed in me by the ITechLaw membership and our dedicated group of officers and directors. During my tenure, we will work to expand our global outreach with policy development and advocacy initiatives and strengthen member engagement with new initiatives like the Virtual Worlds and Gaming Working Group. We will further develop our substantive law committees on data protection, e-commerce, intellectual property and outsourcing and increase content on the ITechLaw members' social networking site," said Jeskie. "We will also continue to open up resources to the broader legal community, as exemplified by our recent decision to make our complete publications and conference materials archives accessible to the public."

The newly elected directors are:

Susan Barty, London, UK
Paulo Brancher, Sao Paulo, Brazil

Peter Braeutigam, Munich, Germany
Christian Frank, Munich, Germany
Axel Funk, Stuttgart, Germany
Francoise Gilbert, Palo Alto, California, USA
Oliver Michael Habel, Munich, Germany
Ole Horsfeldt, Copenhagen, Denmark
Bradley Joslove, Paris, France
Matthew Karlyn, Boston, Massachusetts, USA
Jenna Leavitt, Los Angeles, California, USA
Stephane Lemarchand, Paris, France
Rahul Matthan, Bangalore, India
Don McAleese, Dublin, Ireland
Charles Morgan, Montreal, Quebec, Canada
Johan Nysten, Stockholm, Sweden
Haakon Opperud, Oslo, Norway
Rajiv Patel, Mountain View, California, USA
Michael Peeters, Leeds, UK
Rory Radding, New York, New York, USA
Ira Schwartz, Phoenix, Arizona, USA
Sajai Singh, Bangalore, India
Alan Sutin, New York, New York, USA
Pekka Tarkela, Helsinki, Finland
Robert Weiss, Chicago, Illinois, USA

The organization's recently concluded annual conference in Boston drew attendees from around the globe and featured international speakers on current important topics in technology law, including data protection and privacy, green tech and emerging technologies, current Internet issues, contracting and outsourcing, file sharing and social networking.

The next European conference will be held in Berlin, October 28-29, 2010, its seventh Asian Conference in Bangalore, February 3-4, 2011, and its next World Technology Law Conference and Annual Meeting in San Francisco, May 13-14, 2011. ITechLaw event information can be found at <http://www.itechlaw.org/conferences.htm>.

About the International Technology Law Association

Founded in 1971, ITechLaw is the world's premier organization representing lawyers in the technology sector. The organization's global membership spans six continents and embodies a broad spectrum of expertise.

In addition to serving as a forum for members to discuss a wide range of legal issues, the association regularly organizes conferences around the world that explore cutting-edge issues and trends in both information technology and intellectual property law. It also hosts webinars and roundtables and offers a quarterly bulletin of technology law articles relevant to its members.

For more information, visit the ITechLaw website at www.itechlaw.org.

###

